NC Kayaks is a Tacoma, Washington–based builder of custom Pacific Northwest–style touring kayaks. Founded in 1999, the company hand-builds composite sea kayaks and provides fiberglass repair services for paddlecraft used in coastal and open-water environments. Operating as a small, craft-focused shop, NC Kayaks emphasizes durability, function, and real-world performance over mass production.